The Collect of the Day

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: A Reading from the Book of the Acts of the Apostles: 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Psalm 67

Deus misereatur

Antiphon

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy

- 1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
     show us the light of his countenance and come to us.
- 2 Let your ways be known upon earth, *
     your saving health among all nations.
- 3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
     let all the peoples praise you.
- 4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
     for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Antiphon

- 5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
     let all the peoples praise you.

6 The earth has brought forth her increase; *
    may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

7 May God give us his blessing, *

Anitphon

Second Lesson: A Reading from the Book of Revelation: 21:10, 22-22:5

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John: 5:1-9

People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After Jesus healed the son of the official in Capernaum, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids-- blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk." At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Did you hear any good news in today's Scripture readings, hymns, or prayers? In a world in which we're barraged by bad news, it can be helpful to name aloud with someone else the good news we cherish, by faith, as children of God. Ask an unfamiliar person near you if they would be willing to hear the good news you noticed during this morning's worship service. Be sure to also welcome them to Christ Church!

Announcements

An Anglican informational class with the Rev. Susan Dennen-Rodriguez continues through the remaining Sundays of Easter, from 12:20-1:00 p.m. in the White Room. This class is bilingual and multigenerational, as needed, and is open to anyone wishing to learn more about Anglicanism.

Have you taken the Christ Church Worship Service Times survey? See the survey link on the church Facebook pages (<https://www.facebook.com/ChristChurchMx>) and in the Community Weekly email, & take the survey today to help us plan well.

Upcoming music concerts at Christ Church, organized courtesy of our organist Antonio Ortega Rivera. If there is any way you can support this new Christ Church initiative, please do! You will not regret a calm, beautiful evening of music by young, talented, local musicians.

1. Friday, June 17th. 6.30pm. $150 mxp/person.
Season closing concert. Primavera me hace cantar. *This is a repeat of our first, fabulous concert by the group Antonio directs.
Alio Modo Ensemble.

Pentecost Sunday, June 5th, we will combine the 11:00 and 1:00 p.m. services into a single, multilingual service at 11:00 a.m. You may wish to wear red, and please stay for coffee, cake, & conversation after the service.

Dear Parents— We love having children at Christ Church! There is no Sunday school this Sunday, but we will provide a small table outdoors with some lectionary-based activities for your children. Our usual Sunday School companion, Marisela Ayohua, may be available to sit outside with you and your children and help you care for them, but she is not the teacher on those mornings. At least one parent needs to accompany their child(ren). You know your children's needs and learning styles better than anyone else, so we count on your expertise to help us serve your children well.

Out of respect for other church members enjoying coffee hour and/or the 1 p.m. worship service, please keep your children in your sight once the 11 a.m. service has concluded.

Thank you!

Do you wish you were receiving the weekly Community Weekly news bulletin from Christ Church? and/or would you like a pastoral meeting with one of the clergy? Please fill out a contact information slip from the Ushers' table, and indicate your need.

The church sanctuary is usually open for prayer during the week between 8 a.m. – 8 p.m. and on Sundays, between services, the crypt chapel is available.
